

Have you visited an animal circus?

Have you seen animal welfare conditions that concerned you?

The please let us know

Many people do not realise that a few circuses still use animals, and even then people may visit the circus thinking that the animals are probably well cared for.

But members of the public regularly contact animals welfare groups to complain at the way animals are treated in circuses.

If you have seen things in an animal circus that concern you, please let us know. Fill in the details below and send it to CAPS address, email us or phone us.

If you seem an incident that you feel needs immediate attention, please phone the RSPCA's emergency help line on 0300 1234 999.

In addition to making your concerns known to us, you can also contact an animal welfare officer at the relevant local council , and write to newspapers encouraging people to avoid circuses with animals.

Please send this complaint form to: The Captive Animals' Protection Society (CAPS), PO Box 4186 Manchester, M60 3ZA. Tel: 0845 330 3911 Email: info@captiveanimals.org
